. The Athletics took advantage of an open date to play off a postponed game yesterday with Washington at Philadelphia, and gained a few points on the leaders by easily defeating their opponents by the score of 11 to 3. The contest was onesided from start to finish, and there was little to interest the 3,042 spectators in the stand.

The Athletics gave a fine exhibition of hard and clean hitting, securing fourteen hits for a total of twenty-three bases off Jacobsen in the five and one-half innings he occupied the box. Orth was substituted in the sixth, and but two hits were made off him, both being made by Lave Cross. The visiting twirlers had no room for complaint about the support they received, the Washington players handling everything that came their way, and several fine plays were made. Donovan made the star catch of the game, taking Monte Cross' drive to right field with one hand. It was Dono-van's first virit to Philadelphia on an American Lengue team, and he was warm-

The Athletics also put up a first-class fielding same, the only error charged against than being a fumble by L. Cross, which cost a roll in the fifth inning. Hoffman played a fast game in center, and made a great running catch of Carro's long dy in the second inding. In the slath inning Harry Davis tripped over the bag while turning that I base, and sprained his leg baddy, the was forced to leave the game, and may not play for several reported yesterday, went behind the bat. Being unfamiliar with Meney's signals, he found it hard work catching the swift out-shoots, and in the eighth had a finger split and had to leave the genie. Schreck re-turned to his place behind the plate, and Mullin, the substitute infelder, was given the home team's followers. Neither man had enough to do to form an impression of his ability.

hard and safe In the Athletics' first turn at bat the first four men hit safe, L. Cross hitting for two bases and three runs scored. Singles by Seybold and Davis and Murphy's drive over the center-field fence for a home run added three in the third. In the fifth Murphy doubled and scored on Schreck's single. In the sixth Hartsel hit Schreck's single. In the sixth Hartsel hit to right center for three bases. Hoffman walked and stole second. Davis doubled, scoring both runners. Jacobsen retired at this stage, and L. Cross hit the first ball Orth pitched to right field for a base, scoring Noonan, who ran for Davis. L. Cross scored on successive outs.

Hoffman caught after a hard run, gave Washington one run in the second. Singles by Drill and Donovan and L. Cross-fumble added one in the fifth, and the same pair singled in the seventh, which, with a fielder's choice and a stolen base by Cassidy, gave the third and last run.

SENATORS HOME AGAIN.

Team in Fairly Good Shape to Battle With the New Yorks Today.

Manager Patsy Donovan and his band of Senators reached Washington last night about 11 o'clock. Everybody is in fairly good condition and ready to do their best in the coming home series. Manager Donovan, in conversation with a Star reporter this morning, said that he was particularly pleased with the way Al Orth is rounding into shape, and that he felt confident the team would win a fair number of games to come off victorious. It is more than likely that Case Patten will pitch today's game against the New Yorks, although Manager Donovan had not made up his mind on this point at while at home. The other American League

a club has to play exceptionally good ball

The New York team, under the guldance of Manager Clarke Griffith, arrived in Washington this morning after a hot thirty-six hours' ride from St. Louis. The Highlanders are in fairly good shape notwithstanding that Eiberfeld and Conroy are still laid up with injuries.

The acquisition of Dougherty from Boston has strengthened the team and Manager Clarke Griffith was particularly fortunate in picking up such good youngsters as Osteen and Collins. Osteen, the former Washington player, is now playing short and doing splendidly, while Collins has been filling in in the outfield. Both these youngsters have been hitting the ball at a greeny clip and the other members of the Washington player, is now playing short and doing splendidly, while Collins has been filling in in the outled. Both these youngsters have been hitting the ball at an enery clip and the other members of the players. Willie Keeler hurt his ankle during the Sunday St. Louis game and was releved by Collins. Keeler, when seen this morning at the Ebolits, said his ankle still pained him and that he would probably not play today, which would throw Orth Collins into the game. This will please the host of Collins' friends in Washington. We for Collins' friends in Washington bear, Tandor of Collins' friends in Washington. Wilsons Easily Outplayed Mt. Pleasant Methodists.

The excitement was great on the Mt. Pleasant grounds yesterday when the Mt. Pleasant Methodists were bested by the strong Wilsons by the score of 14 to 5. For six innings it looked as though the Methodist boys were going to get one of the games they have been trying to win so hard, but a streak of loose playing told the tale, and in the sixth, seventh and eighth the Wilsons began to get in their work. the consequence being victory.

McCaully, an old base ball player, who understands the game from start to finis closing his fifth week under the Methodist rule, and becomes eligible to play next week. He was on the coaching line for the Mt. Pleasant boys yesterday, and under his guidance they played the best game they have this year.

Next week the Methodist boys will not only be strengthened with McCaully, but Lord and Wahler will also be added to the ranks. These players are both well known in local base ball circles and will do much to add strength to the team. The last, but not the least, will be the addition of "Grey" Kennedy, who returns from the south next week and will resume his old position here with the Methodist lads.

With this team on the field and the kind of playing they put up for six innings vesterday the lads may yet hope to add som tallies in the won column.

The Carrolls, although they won, had to work throughout the entire game. The score at one time during the contest was 6 to 1 in favor of the Carrolls, but the Weodward & Lothrop boys secured several runs, and in the eighth inning but two runs separated them. PRINCETON WON.

Tigers Defeated University of Chicago Boys in Dual Meet.

Princeton University yesterday at Chicago defeated the University of Chicago in he first outdoor track and field dual meet ever held between representatives of the wo universities. Out of a total of fourteen points, only first place figuring in the count, Princeton secured 71/2 points, while Chicago finished with 61/2. The result of the meet hung in the balance until the finish of the half-mile run, the last track event, when Williams (Princeton) and his team-mate, Adsit, crossed the tape fully thirty yards ahead of Cahill (Chicago).

In the hundred-yard dash there were only two starters, Fox (Princeton) being pitted against Rice (Chicago). The eastern man was outclassed by his western rival, and at the finish was fully six yards in the rear

As had been predicted, Catlin (Chicago) won both of the hurdle races. In the 440-yard run Taylor (Chicago) led up to the last forty yards, when Atlee (Princeton) forged ahead, winning by a few feet. SHEEPSHEAD RACES.

Sheriff Bell and Dainty Ran Dead

Heat in Grass Selling Stakes. The fourth dead heat of the season was run in the Grass Selling stakes, for threeyear-olds and upward, one mile and a sixteenth on turf, at Sheepshead Bay yesterday when Judge Clarence McDowell was unable to separate M. L. Hayman's Sheriff Bell, 10 to 1, and W. B. Jennings' Dainty, coupled with Leader at 7 to 2. A furlong from home Dainty appeared to have the race well in hand, but Travers allowed Burns to get up on the rail with Sheriff Bell, the former losing what seemed a sure dvantage through a weak finish.

Both owners were anxious to run it off and after a rest of twenty minutes the pair went to the post again, Dainty being an overwhelming favorite, backed down from 8 to 5 to 3 to 5, while Sheriff Bell, opening at 1 to 2, went back to 7 to 5. Travers was so slow in getting Dainty under way that Sheriff Bell took a commanding lead of two lengths in mediately after the start and never relinquished it, in spite of the fact that Dainty made two attempts to get to him before reaching the homestretch. It was a whipping finish, but Sheriff Bell had the race cinched all the way and won handily by two lengths in 1.30 2-5. John A. Drake's Savable, with 122 pounds, was an even money favorite in the handicap at a mile and an eighth, with H. B. Duryea's Whorier and H. B. Durham's Dekaber both receding to 9 to 2. Whorler proceeded to make the pace, followed by Savable and Dekaber, but when the head of the stretch was reached Dekaber, who had a feather on her back, ran over the others and won easily by a length in 1.541/2. Savable beat Whorler a head, with Carbuncle 6 to 1, three parts of a length back and the same distance before Brigand.

There was a big upset in Rosebuds, for vo-year-old fillies, at five furlongs, Futurity course, when Andrew Miler's Incantation, odds on favorite, was beaten a length by R. T. Wilson, jr.'s, Belle Sauvage, backed down to eights. Incantation and James R. Keene's Fancy Dress, 12 to 1, led their field to the last sixteenth, where Cor-mack came fast with Belle Sauvage, who was not to be denied. Incantation Fancy Dress by half a length. The time was 1.01 3-5.

first race, for maiden two-year-olds, at five and a half furiongs, Futurity course, in a sharp drive, beating W. C. Daly's Jerry C. 10 to 1, by a length, the latter having a head over the favorite, Diamond Flush, down to 4 to 1, was practically left at the post, but ran a fine race and was fourth. The time was 1.08 1-5. M. L. Hayman's De Reszke, 3 to 1 favorite, made all the running in the second event, at a mile, and galloped home an easy winner by three lengths. Frank Farrell's Champlain, 12 to 1, was second in a drive, a head before Martinmas, who closed on equal terms with De Reszke in the betting. The mile was run in 1.39 4-5.

Mike Clancy's Delcanta, 8 to 1, took the

The mile was run in 1.39 4-5.
Fred Gebhard's Pulsus, odds-on favorite, won the fifth race, for three-year-olds, at six furlongs, in fine style. He picked up 126 pounds, and in spite of a terrific pace set by John A. Drake's Liberia, he ran over the by John A. Drake's Liberia, he ran over the latter in the stretch and took the race by a length and a half in a drive. Liberia, who was in receipt of fifteen pounds from Pulsus, was three lengths before Andrew Miler's Divination, lowered from 8 to 1 to 9 to 2. The time was 1.13 4-5. Only two favorites got the money.

WON $320,000.

Owner of Highball Hit Bookies for That Sum on Saturday's Race.

A special from Chicago says that all estimates of the money won by W. M. Scheftel, owner of the colt Highball that won the American derby Saturday, fall ridiculously below the real mark. The New York stock broker actually won $320,000 on the victory of his animal.

To friends at a Chicago club Sunday night Mr. Scheftel talked about his winnings and naively remarked that he did not suppose many would believe him, but he had made a fortune on this bit of horseflesh.

"I began betting on Highball with eastern bookmakers when Highball's price was as good as 30 to 1." said the young man.
"Whenever I got good odds and could place the commission with a responsible man I had no hesitancy about backing my colt. More than $300,000 in wagers and nearly $27,000 from the purse were my good for tune. Of course the trip here was a costly one—taking about $10,000 off the winnings." Highball returned to the east yesterday. It is doubtful if he will ever race again in

The great three-year-old that for the first time carried the colors of an eastern owner to victory in the great horse race will make his next start in the Advance stakes at Sheepshead Bay Saturday.

Owner Scheftel, feeling as happy as a three-year-old himself, returned home yeserday morning. "I shall certainly come back next year if I can find another Highball," he said.
"Thus far there is nothing in my string of two-year-olds that gives much promise Fireball sounds good, but he is only a sell-

OFF FOR ST. LOUIS.

Hermis Will Start in World's Fair Handicap.

E. R. Thomas' Hermis, winner of the Suburban handicap, will start in the $50,000 World's Fair handicap, one mile and a quarter, at St. Louis next Saturday. The $60,000 horse left Gravesend at 5:40 o'clock was attached to the Exposition Limited, leaving here at 10:20 o'clock over the New York Central road. He will arrive in the mound city at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The car was well padded, and it carried enough feed and water to last until after the big the Hermis colt, went along and took with him his saddle horse as a companion for the suburban winner. When the train reached Albany the trainer wired his father, Aleck Shields, that Hermis was father, Aleck Shields, that Hermis was lying down in the siraw, apparently at home with his surroundings. Jockey Redfern and his father left here last night for St. Louis. The boy will ride the great horse in his trials and in the race. Aleck Shields will leave on Thursday and Mr. Thomas will take a train that will get him Thomas will take a train that will get him to the trackside in time to see his racer go to the post. Hermis will only have to repeat his suburban race to win, in the estimation of the turf sharps. McChesney is a doubtful starter and Gold Heels is said to be lame again. Dick Welles will not go, while The Picket, Irish Lad, Africander, Savable, Ort Wells, Acefull and Runnells will all remain here. McGee, Bernays and Colonial Girl are the ones Hermis has to beat, and local turfmen feel that he will do it to the queen's taste.

gave the critics a chance to size up another of the competitors for the race that is now only a week away. Dempsey was in charge of the crews and in the morning coached from a little gasoline launch that could not keep him within sight of the crews. In the afternoon the Georgetown rien displayed their nerve and secured a big steam yacht, from the deck of which the former Vesper coach shouted his instructions. There was nothing to inspire terror in the rowing of the Washington eight and nothing upon which to base the belief that they would be among the leaders again this year. The 'varsity rowed in ragged style.

They did no hard rowing and nothing could be learned of their actual speed. But last year the Georgetown 'Varsity was the crudest combination on the river and yet they got second, so that too much cannot be placed on the form of the crew. The four is a fast-looking lot; the men have the form and the strength and they seemed to move the boat along at a good rate.

East Washington Park Snowed Under. A very exciting game of base ball was played between the East Washington team and the Benning Ruby Stars Sunday last, which was won by the latter by the score of 6 to 5 in a ten-inning pitchers' battle between Hunter for the Rubys and Shilling for the East Washington team, Hunter having much the better of it, striking out eleven men. There were some very bril-lient playing on both sides-for the winners Captain Deavers on first, Reddington in left. Carrigan's catchink was phenomein left. Carrigan's catenina was phenomenal. Gilmore's two two-baggers were especially timely, which practically settled the game. The same teams will again cross bats on the same grounds Sunday next at 2 o'cleck p.m.

Base Ball Notes.

Louisville won nine straight before going down to defeat. Atlanta has taken a great brace since Bob Stafford joined the team.

Everybody will wish Lowe good luck as manager of the Detroits. The Pittsburgs made eighty-two hits in the last six games of the eastern trip. Pitcher Deering has been indefinitely suspended by Toledo for "histing." Pitcher Fairbank, once with the Athletics, is doing fine work for Providence. St. Louis has landed four out of six games from the National League champions. Second Baseman Cariss has been elected captain of the University of Pennsylvania team for next year. Harvey Bailey has left Minneapolis to join the Newark team. Burnham is doing nothing but making changes and money. Conroy of the New Yorks is once more on the hospital list. He wrenched his ankle Thursday in a collision with Anderson.

Jack Ryan has resigned the captaincy of the Kansas City American Association team and his place has been taken by Nance, the outfielder formerly with Detroit. Kan-sas City was last in the race. President John H. Farrell of the New York state league has suspended Umpire Burns and Catcher Patrick Donohue of the Utica base ball team, pending an investi-gation of the disturbance which occurred on the Syracuse grounds Thursday.

Cy Coombs, the college pitcher, who held Bates College team down to four hits in Saturday's game, has sent word to Manager Lake that he will not play with Lowell this season. It was expected that Coombs would report abtu June 21 to Papa Lake but Coombs' decision is final and as a re-suit Chase of Suncook was at once signed. Says John S. Garvan, the former Yale pitcher, who is the coach for Trinity College: "Mike Lynch has every other college pitcher beat a mile. Lynch lives in Holy-oke, and when he was in Hartford a short time ago he showed me his contract with Pittsburg. He joins the Pittsburg team Saturday and will get $4,000 to finish the to 1. John E Madden's Hot Shot, backed down to 4 to 1, was practically left at the post, but ran a fine race and was fourth.

He touched second and threw to Sullivan at third, both runners having left the bases. The second occurred in the seventh, Cristall forcing Brouthers at second and being doubled. Lewes to Ryan. Sweeney had started for home on the play and was caught on Ry-an's throw. Toledo won, 8 to 2.

At Terre Haute, Ind., on Thursday, the game with Dayton was declared forfeited in the seventh to Terre Haute by Umpire Kiefer by a score of 9 to 0. The score at this period stood 2 to 2. A decision of the umpire so angered Manager Knoll of Day-ton that he assaulted the umpire, and was ordered out of the game and the grounds. It is alleged that he refused to comply with the order, and for this reason the game was forfeited to Terre Haute. The services of half a dozen policemen were required be-fore order could be restored. William Matthews of Pottsville, Pa., Harrisburg's best pitcher, has received an offer to finish the season with the St. Louis Cardinals of the National League, and will accept. Matthews, who is fast both at the bat and in the field, developed as a ball player while he was serving with the United States army in Cuba, during the Spanish-American War. Last week he held the strong Altoona team down to three hits.

THE DIPLOMAS CONFERRED BY COL. JOHN BIDDLE.

Addresses by Judge Chambers and District Commissioner Macfarland -Scholarship Awarded.

The National Theater was the scene of a happy gathering last evening, when one hundred and forty-eight young men and women on a stage banked with great quantities of owers and palms, listened to words of advice from their elders and received diplomas in the Business High School course from the hands of Commissioner Biddle. Over the heads of the guests and speakers at the front of the stage hung a large facsimile of the class pin, suspended from the arch of the proscenium. It was a shield in orange and blue with "B. H. S.-1904" in large characters on its face, the whole bordered with glowing incandescent electric lights. The auditorium as well

The week of commencements, which began last Thursday evening, according to an address made at the time by Commissioner Macfarland, has furnished no prettier event than the Business commencement. Graduates, undergraduates, teachers, parents and visitors were delighted. The boys and girls of the class entered from opposite sides of the stage last night and when seet. sides of the class entered from opposite sides of the stage last night and when seat-ed occupied all but about one quarter of the space. An unusually effective scenic dis-play and side lights, arranged by Mr. Frank Howard, completed the beauty of the stage

Mr. Macfarland Presides.

Commissioner Macfarland, under whose immediate jurisdiction the public schools of the District come, presided. The invocation was made by Rev. Dr. Wallace Radcliffe, pastor of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church. Judge William Lea Chambers, commissioner of the Spanish treaty claims commission and late chief Justice of the international court at Sajustice of the international court at Samoa, made the address to the graduates. The scholarship offered by the Washington School of Law was announced by Superintendent A. T. Stuart, and the Engineer Commissioner, Col. Biddle, conferred the diplomas as the names of the graduates were read by Principal Davis of the Business High School. There were also present ness High School. There were also present on the stage, Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey, dean of the Washington School of Law, and several ladies and gentlemen, mem-bers of the board of education. A pleasing program of orchestral music was rendered during the evening by a portion of the Marine Band, under the leadership of Lieut. Santelmann, and Mr. Lucien H. Cohen, a member of the orchestra, played a very pleasing violin solo.

In his introductory remarks Commission-er Macfarland said that this educational department was in every sense a business school. When one visits it, he said, he When the Pittsburg players left Philadelphia they were accompanied by Paul Kruger. The little fellow, while still in a bad way, objected to being left behind. He made a most pathetic plea against being sent to a hospital, and after a talk with the attending physician, Manager Clarke yielded to Kruger's appeal that he be permitted to accompany the team to Pittsburg.

"I have got some mighty good ball players on this team, but they seem to have the faculty to hit the ball right at some one."

school. When one visits it, he said, he thinks he is in the offices of some great corporation, and if he examines its annual exhibit he is impressed with the skill and care manifested in the work. He said, also, that the Commissioners would endeavor to get for the school whatever it should be in need of in the future, even after the new building is completed.

Mr. Macfarland then introduced Judge Chambers, referring to him as a man with a business knowledge of many lands.

Address by Judge Chambers.

"For an average, perhaps, of ten years, the golden decade for education-getting," said Judge Chambers, "you have been the beneficiaries of a system of public instruction-not the recipients, as some think, of a colossal charity-which with all its defects is the best the world has ever known, culminating in a special course of business training comparatively unknown to the general system of public education throughout the country. "The very exceptional advantages you have just enjoyed are best evidenced by the fact that not above 3 per cent of the city systems profess to furnish any such equipment, and the village and country schools make no effort whatever in this direction.'

The speaker then referred at length to the different ideals in business life, saying that above everything else integrity and honesty for its own sake should actuate every business man. He gave the following motto to the class: "Gratitude. reverence, respect for authority, honesty truth, faith and personal purity." These virtues he called the "American beauties" of education. "plaited into a glorious wreath of business success by the hand of unselfish activity." After amplifying his ideas of each of he virtues recommended in the motto, Judge Chambers spoke against selfishness in business. He said the man who worked entirely for individual happiness would never be happy. He closed his address with a poetical quotation on the theme of higher ideals than the amassing of wealth. Superintendent Stuart was introduced by Commissioner Macfarland, who spoke of him as the "ancient mariner" of the school ship, and complimented him highly for his efficient work at the helm. Without taking occasion to reply to the good-natured sally about his age, Mr. Stuart thanked the Commissioner for his complimentary remarks and proceeded to announce the prize scholar of the two years' course, Miss Addie Woodville Chewning. He said that Mrs. Mussey, dean of the Washing-ton Law School, had not intended to give a scholarship this year, but the young lady law student to whom it was awarded last year was so efficient that she was moved to renew the offer.

Col. Biddle's Mission. Commissioner Macfarland next introduced Colonel Biddle in the following words: "Although he is the handsomest and most brilliant Engineer Commissioner we have had, yet he still has the unhappy distinction of being a bachelor. Yet there is hope for him, for he is the unanimous choice of this beautiful galaxy of graduates, in the front rows, for the presenta-tion of the diplomas, and this is leap-year, Although Colonel Biddle had not expected to make a speech, he was equal to the oc-casion. When he had thanked the class for the beautiful flowers he had received during the day, he said the main thing about a commencement was the receiving of the diplomas, he who has to give them out must, therefore, be the most important man of the evening. It reminded him of an incident in Cuba, he said, when officers had been sent out to make certain payments. A brother officer had just finished a long speech and the paymaster was called upon for some remarks. The latter, not being a man of many words, said he could not make a long speech nor use such eloquence as the audience had listened to, but he could pay the money, and that was what was wanted. Col. Biddle's moral lay with the application of the paymaster's remarks to his own mission.

The graduates filed passed the Engineer

Commissioner, who received the sheepskins from a large frame made in the shape of the letters "B. H. S.," and handed them the letters B. H. S., and handed them smilingly to their owners.

The flower girls, while the orchestra was playing the closing airs, distributed the flowers to the members of the graduating class, who waited for them on the stage.
